Reasons for Allowance

Claims 1-3 and 12 have been cancelled.

Claims 4-11 and 13-17 are allowed.

This is examiner's statement of reasons for allowance.

Regarding claims 4 and 14 the prior art either singularly or in combination does not teach an imaging device comprising:

a first imaging lens and a second imaging lens whose image picking-up directions are different; an imaging device having imaging surfaces on which images picked up via said first imaging lens and said second imaging lens are formed; a selecting member for selecting the image signal corresponding to any one of said first imaging lens and said second imaging lens to display thereof on said display portion and a light shielding member for shielding optical paths of the first imaging lens and the second and a light shielding member for shielding optical paths of the first imaging lens and the second imaging lens provided on the imaging surface.

Regarding claims 5 and 15 the prior art either singularly or in combination does not teach an imaging device comprising:

a first imaging lens and a second imaging lens whose image picking-up directions are different; an imaging device having imaging surfaces on which images picked up via said first imaging lens and said second imaging lens are formed; a selecting member for selecting the image signal corresponding to any one of said first imaging lens and said second imaging lens to display thereof on said display portion and infrared cutting filter provided between the first imaging lens and the second imaging lens and the imaging surfaces of the imaging element.

Regarding claim 6, the prior art either singularly or in combination does not teach an imaging device comprising:

a first imaging lens and a second imaging lens whose image picking-up directions are different; a reflecting member for changing an optical path of an image picked up via one imaging lens; an imaging device having imaging surfaces on which images picked up via said first imaging lens and said second imaging lens are formed; a selecting member for selecting the image signal corresponding to any one of said first imaging lens and said second imaging lens to display thereof on said display portion, wherein the reflecting member is a mirror or a prism.

Regarding claims 7, 9 and 16, the prior art either singularly or in combination does not teach an imaging device comprising:

a first imaging lens and a second imaging lens whose image picking-up directions are different; a holder for holding the first imaging lens and the second imaging lens and the reflecting member; an imaging device having imaging surfaces on which images picked up via said first imaging lens and said second imaging lens are formed; a moving member to which the holder is provided, for moving a position of the holder such that any one of the images picked up via the first imaging lens and the second imaging lens is formed on an imaging surface of the imaging device.

Regarding claims 8 and 17 the prior art either singularly or in combination does not teach an imaging device comprising:

a first imaging lens and a second imaging lens whose image picking-up directions are different; a holder for holding the first imaging lens and the second imaging lens and the reflecting member; an imaging device having imaging surfaces on which images picked up via said first imaging lens and said second imaging lens are formed; a moving member to which the holder is provided, for moving a position of the holder such that any one of the images picked up via the first imaging lens and the second imaging lens is formed on an imaging surface of the imaging device and infrared cutting filter provided between the first imaging lens and the second imaging lens and the imaging surfaces of the imaging element.

Regarding claims 10, 11 and 13 the prior art either singularly or in combination does not teach a mobile terminal device comprising:

a mobile terminal device main body having a display portion; a first imaging lens and a second imaging lens arranged on a front surface portion, on which the display portion is arranged, and a side surface portion of the mobile terminal device main body, for picking-up images positioned in mutually perpendicular directions; a selecting member for selecting the image signal that is subjected to the signal processing member or a reading area on the imaging surface, that corresponds to the first imaging lens or the second imaging lens, to display any one of images picked up via the first imaging lens and the second imaging lens on the display portion wherein an imaging angle of the first imaging lens is set wider than an imaging angle of view of the second imaging lens.

The features identified, in combination with other claim limitations, are neither suggested nor discussed by the prior art of record.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
